DATE : 31ST JULY , 2007.

P.C.

. Heard Mr. Parmar, learned Counsel for the petitioners and Mrs.Pai, learned APP for the respondents. The Advocate for the petitioners present along with petitioner No.1. She has made categorical statement before us that all her disputes with her husband have been settled, though initially she had filed the complaint against the husband and others on 22nd February, 2005, under section 498A of the Indian Penal Code, she is no more interested in pursuing the said complaint and desires to withdraw the same. We accept her statement. As the complainant is not interested in pursuing with the matter, the FIR No. 87/2005 is ordered to be quashed. Consequent to such direction, nothing further survives in the matter. Hence the petition is accordingly disposed of with the above direction.
